

Wayside Bed & Breakfast

Splendor in Alaska

Jean has parlayed her love of cooking and hosting and other fabulous skills into a successful Bed and Breakfast habitat. The Wayside Bed and Breakfast, briefly mentioned on the previous page, is located in the heart of the Matanuska-Suistana Valley, where abundant beauty surrounds visitors.

Whatever pastimes you may enjoy, from fishing to hiking to canoing and more, the splendor of the Matanuska-Suistana Valley offers you a larger than life landscape to enjoy. Whether your visit is over night or you are staying for a while to take in all the scenic attractions, A Wayside Inn is for you.

Each morning you can awake to the aroma of gourmet coffee and a delightful continental breakfast. In the summertime barbecues are offered on weekends for an additional charge.

The decor in the inn is delightful, which each room sporting a different rustic theme. One visitor favorite is the Cowboy Room, which has a log post "cowboy bed" and features real "Taming the Wild Horses" cowboy photos from well-known photographer J. Cunningham.

Fishing in the 49th state is as good as it gets, with some of the best fishing for King Salmon, silver salmon, trout, northern pike is plentiful in the Matanuska-Suistana Valley. There are also hunting opportunities. The area regulations for hunting are provided on line at www.adfg.state.ak.us

A Wayside B & B offers in-house processing services for both game and fish. If this is of interest to you, please ask for individual pricing for each service.

To check availability and make reservations for your stay at Wayside and to enjoy the vacation of a lifetime, please contact Jean at www.awayside-bandb.com or call her at 1-877-907-2929. She and her husband Barry, along with their black lab, Jet, will be glad to see you.

The Beta Sigma Phi Bed and Breakfast program was conceived as a member-to-member program intended to benefit the members involved. More information on our Bed and Breakfast program, please contact Barbara Champion at International, 816-444-6800.
