

Torch News

Our members want the Torch back in printed form. We have had overwhelming response to only offering it online. While we will continue to provide it online, we would like printed copies to be made available to members. We have discussed several options that will allow us to once again offer a printed version of the Torch, and decided on the process that will most benefit you, our members. Because of the prohibitive cost of printing and postage, we can offer a printed version only if members choose to subscribe for a small yearly fee of $14.00.

If you are interested in subscribing to a printed version of the Torch, please print and fill out the form below. We must reach a quota to print. If quota is not met, your money will be refunded. Deadline is February 28, 2010. Credit cards preferred.
